About Company

Labistronix is a registered and authorized distributor representing some of Pakistan's most trusted pharmaceutical and medical brands, including FDL Pharma, Aspil Pharma, & Master Surgical.

With a rapidly expanding presence in the healthcare sector, we specialize in the distribution of IV infusions, surgical items, and medical consumables to hospitals and institutional buyers.

We recognize that in healthcare, supply chain efficiency directly impacts patient care. That is why we go beyond traditional distribution to act as a strategic supply partner. Labistronix ensures that hospitals and healthcare providers have timely, compliant, and seamless access to critical supplies. By managing procurement processes, coordinating with hospital committees, & ensuring smooth communication between stakeholders, we make healthcare supply reliable, transparent, and scalable.

Our foundation is built on three core values: trust, accountability, and efficiency. These principles guide our partnerships & position us as a dependable force in strengthening healthcare delivery across Pakistan.

Message from the CEO

"At Labistronix, we believe healthcare supply is more than distribution—it's about saving lives through consistency, efficiency, and trust. Every order means hospitals are better equipped, doctors better supported, and patients better cared for."

"As authorized distributors, we are committed to ensuring hospitals across Pakistan never face shortages. Together with our partners, we are shaping a future where healthcare supply is not a challenge, but a guarantee."

Saddam Razaque

Our Mission & Vision

MISSION

“Our mission is to create a transparent, reliable, and efficient healthcare supply chain that ensures hospitals & providers receive authentic, high-quality products on time. We serve as a trusted channel for manufacturers & distributors, while delivering trust, compliance, and accountability at every stage—so life-saving supplies are always available where they are needed most.”

VISION

“At Labistronix, our vision is to be Pakistan’s most trusted healthcare distribution partner, ensuring uninterrupted access to essential medicines, IV infusions, surgical items, and diagnostics. Through transparency, innovation, and strong partnerships, we aim to strengthen healthcare delivery so every patient—whether in a city or remote area—receives timely, reliable care.”

Our Role in healthcare Supply Chain

Healthcare systems cannot function without a dependable supply chain. At Labistronix, our commitment is clear: the right product, at the right time, every time.

As Authorized Distributors

We work directly with manufacturers like FDL Pharma, Aspil Pharma, and Master Surgical to supply hospitals with essential IV fluids, antibiotics, and surgical consumables. As authorized distributors, we ensure every product is authentic, compliant, and consistently available—giving hospitals and procurement committees confidence in quality, credibility, and smooth approval processes.

As Institutional Supply Partners

Our role extends to managing procurement pipelines for hospitals and healthcare facilities.

As a single contact point, we cut delays, hidden costs, and gaps—streamlining supply & building trust across Pakistan's healthcare ecosystem.

We simplify the process by:

- Handling quotations and tenders.
- Coordinating purchase orders.
- Ensuring transparent, compliant transactions.

Why Choose Labistronix?

01 Authorized Distributor Advantage

As official distributors of FDL Pharma, Aspil Pharma, and Master Surgical, we ensure authentic, compliant, and uninterrupted supply of critical products.

02 Strong Institutional Network

We've earned trust of government, private, and military hospitals by delivering quality supplies from credible manufacturers, ensuring your products are prioritized and trusted.

03 End-to-End Supply Management

From product approvals to invoicing and delivery coordination, we manage the complete cycle. This allows hospitals to focus on patient care while we handle the logistics.

04 Transparent & Compliant Operations

Every transaction is executed with accountability, fully aligned with hospital SOPs and procurement standards. Transparency is not just a promise—it is the way we operate.

05 Trusted Growth Partner

For distributors and hospitals alike, Labistronix offers long-term value creation. We ensure consistent supply for healthcare providers while helping distributors grow their reach through our institutional channels.

Our Products

Our product offerings are carefully curated to meet the essential and high-demand needs of hospitals and healthcare institutions.

IV Infusions & Sterile Fluids
